

I urge you at your June 2 meeting to vote against monopoly ownership of TV, radio and internet communications by the big media giants. The airwaves belong to the people. It's time to change this irresponsible policy of deregulation.